

Studio Q Program – Term 4, 2020 Information Kit

General Course Outline and Structure

Studio Q is a face to face theatre and performance training program delivered by Q Theatre, based at the Joan Sutherland Performing Arts Centre, Penrith.

Participants attend a weekly workshop across an 8-week term (aligned with the NSW public school's terms), to learn and develop new skills and work towards a performance outcome.

The following online courses are being offered in Term 4, 2020 (subject to meeting minimum participant requirements):

- Starting Out: For ages 5 to 8, Saturdays – More Info & Bookings
- Stepping Up: For ages 9 to 12, Saturdays – More Info & Bookings
- Ignite: For ages 13 to 15, Saturdays – More Info & Bookings
- Accelerate: For ages 16 to 18, Tuesdays after school – More Info & Bookings
- Access Adults Ensemble: For ages 26+ living with disability, Fridays – More Info & Bookings
- Access Young Adults Ensemble: For ages 18 to 26 living with disability, Fridays – More Info & Bookings

What Do I Wear? How Do I Prepare? What Do I Bring to the Studio Q Course?

Participants are required to wear rehearsal-style clothing: loose, comfortable and appropriate, suitable for preparing them for the rigours of theatre-making. Black or dark shirts, pants or shorts, and close-toed shoes are recommended. Short shorts, skirts and dresses are not appropriate.

As well as that, it is recommended that participants bring a bottle of water. Sugary drinks, fruit juices, soft drinks are not allowed. Food is not allowed unless through written agreement with the Studio Q Coordinator.

Studio Q 2020 Showcase – Online Stream Presentation

Saturday 5 December at 7pm | Tickets: $20 per family

Term 4 provides students time to develop and present a performance of their theatre skills to the public. In a first for Studio Q, we will be pre-recording the performances of our students in preparation for an Online Stream Presentation event to share with our community. Families and friends can share in the performances in the safety and comfort of their own homes, and students have the chance to see their own performance with their ensemble. We are proud to provide this new experience of Studio Q talented students!
